From the President

Dear Alumni of the College:

Congratulations on a job well done! The goal of 1974-1975, 650 donors, was exceeded by 67. 717 donors to the alumni drive meant a 37% increase over 1973-1974 with a total fund of $16,806. You are the most important contributors to your Alma Mater. As you support the college, so will business and industry.

The College has an enrollment of 1700 for 1975-1976 with an operating budget of two and a quarter million. Your gift is important! The drive is considered important in two ways: the number who give, and the total amount of money received. The one figure is as important as the other. Do not wait until you can afford to give; give now.

Let us see you at homecoming. Let us say "welcome home to you."

Sincerely,
Sister Olive Louise, CSJ

It's Back to Blasco Hall and the Avila Campus for Homecoming '75.

Built in 1963 after the College of St. Teresa moved south and became Avila, Blasco Hall (the Administration Building) has since been joined by 6 other structures for a design award-winning campus. Come, see it again.

Committee Plans Homecoming '75 Event

Busy working out details for the Back to Avila Weekend are Sr. Olive Louise, president of the college, Elena O'Shea Nordstrom '65, chairman of the committee, Theresa Morris Egelhoff '65, president of the Alumni Association, Sandra Klug Blackburn '65, and standing, Lou Sondern, public relations director. Other committee members are Mary Ann Caffrey '75, Frances Minges Engel '65, Janet McCullough Taylor '67, and Sr. Rose Anthony [Ruth Marie Schmitt '36], secretary of the Alumni Association.

Preparations are under way, and Avila looks forward to seeing you and your spouse or guest at Homecoming '75, a two-day occasion crammed with festivities.

On Saturday evening, November 8, the socializing will begin over cocktails and a buffet supper in the Goppert Theatre Foyer (cash bar; $5.00 per person for the supper).

At 8:00 p.m. you will see an Avila players' presentation of "The Crucible", by Arthur Miller. This play, an appropriate bicentennial celebration of the American ideal "Give me liberty or give me death", focuses on the Salem witch trials of 1692: John Proctor's conscience conflicts with a corrupt and unethical society. His edifying decision rings gloriously throughout history for all freedom-loving people from colonial times to our own troubled days.

Continuing the conviviality on Sunday morning, November 9, you will be offered juice and/or coffee in the Marian Centre lounge at 9:30 a.m., followed by brunch at 10:15 ($3.00 per person). The classes of 1925, 1950 and 1965 will be honored at this time. Gaylin Thomas, assistant professor of music, will sing.

Mass in Foyle Hall at 12:15 will conclude the events.

Remember—Homecoming '75, November 8 and 9.
